Faculty Program: The student in this assistantship will work primarily with Dr. Shelli Rampold on research projects pertaining to current and emerging issues in agriculture and natural resources, consumer knowledge and awareness of agriculture, and communicating agricultural science.

*Students applying for this assistantship must meet all the following requirements. Please check all that apply:

- Pell Grant eligible OR First Generation
- Undergraduate Student
- Have not previously received funding from the Office of Undergraduate Research and Fellowships
- Not planning to graduate before December 2022

If you have checked all the boxes above, please continue the application.

*Student Information

1) First Name:

2) Last Name:

3) UTK Email:

4) Student NetID:

5) Major:

6) Expected Graduation Term & Year:

7) Are you currently employed or receiving funding from UT outside of the Federal Work Study program or Financial Aid? If so, please specify.

Research Project Information

8) Monday-Friday Availability:

9) Why are you interested in undergraduate research?

10) What skills do you have that will help inform your work as a researcher?

11) How will this assistantship support your future goals/why do you want this assistantship?